COMA's 30th Clark Rogerson Foray

Thurs. – Sun., August 23 – 26, 2007

We are returning to Cave Hill Resort in Moodus, Connecticut. This cozy resort has an outdoor pool, a small lake and acres of grass and trees. Foraging in the Salmon River State Forest and other nearby parks is reliably outstanding. We usually get over 300 species, and baskets of choice edibles. Enjoy delectably prepared mushroom dishes and an evening marshmallow roast over a bonfire. Walk and learn with Gary Lincoff, our chief mycologist, as well as Dr. Sam Ristich, Dr. Roz Lowen, Rod Tulloss, Sandy Sheine, Leon Shernoff, editor of Mushroom the Journal, and many other knowledgeable people.

The 4-day fee includes 3 nights' lodging and 8 meals, from dinner on Thursday to brunch on Sunday. (Bring your lunch on your day of arrival.) Activities include swimming, presentations and board games. (Bring your own favorite game.) Donations of books and mushroom memorabilia for our famous TCHOTCHKA AUCTION would be appreciated.
